

SHORT COURSE

THE IMPLEMENTATION OF INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW

ONLINE | 5 - 20 DECEMBER 2024

This short course aims at presenting the institutions and procedures in charge of the implementation of international human rights law.

It will start with a presentation of the main regional systems (European, African, Inter-American) and will then focus on the various components of the United Nations system: the Human Rights Council and its procedure, and the treaty bodies. The expectations and strategies of the various actors will be looked at.

At the end of the course, the participants will be in a position to understand the procedures, but will also have acquired the main information so as to use them effectively for their own purpose.
